

Israeli Money

The local Israeli currency is the New Israeli Shekel (NIS). Each shekel is worth about 25 cents.

NIS coins come in units of: 1 (~ 25 cents), 2 (~ 50 cents), 5 (~ $1.25), 10 (~ $2.50)

NIS Coins

US $

1NIS ~ $.25

2NIS ~ $.50

5NIS ~ $1.25

10NIS ~ $2.50

NOTE:

NIS coins in Israel have much higher value than what you are used to in North America, so watch your shekel coins carefully.

EXAMPLES:

- If you have five 2NIS coins, you have $2.50
- If you have three 10NIS coins, you have $7.50.

Go to www.coinmill.com/ILS\_USD.html for the current exchange rate

Israeli coins also come in much smaller denominations (similar to pennies), called agorot.

Agorot coins come in units of: 5, 10, and 50(½).

Agorot Coins

twenty 5 agorot coins
= 1 shekel

ten 10 agorot coins
= 1 shekel

two 50 agorot coins
= 1 shekel

Shekel bills come in units of: 20 (~ $5), 50 (~ $12.50), 100 (~ $25), 200 (~ $50).

20NIS ~ $5

50NIS ~ $12.50

100NIS ~ $25

200NIS ~ $50