2017 ANNUAL REPORT
JEWISH HOLIDAYS 5778

Note: Holidays begin at sundown of the previous day.

SEP 21-22, 2017
Rosh Hashanah
Literally meaning “Head of the Year,” Rosh Hashanah marks the beginning of the Jewish calendar. It begins a 10-day period of repentance and prayer which ends on Yom Kippur. We celebrate the holiday with services and apples dipped in honey to symbolize the hope for a sweet year to come.

SEP 30, 2017
Yom Kippur
The Day of Atonement is the holiest day of the Jewish calendar, marking the end of the 10 days of repentance. It is spent in fasting and fervent prayer. Sounding the shofar signals the holiday’s end.

OCT 5-11, 2017
Sukkot
This harvest festival is named for the temporary dwellings, called Sukkot, decorated with fruit and vegetables, set up to recall the booths in which the Jews lived during their journey from Egypt. The holiday is marked by processions with the lulav (palm branch with myrtle and willow) and etrog (citron).

OCT 12, 2017
Shemini Atzeret
The day after Sukkot is Shemini Atzeret, which is combined in Israel with Simchat Torah, nominally a separate holiday; thus, there is no partaking of meals in the sukkah, nor use of the lulav and etrog. The special prayer for rain is recited during the musaf service.

OCT 13, 2017
Simchat Torah
Outside of Israel, the day after Shemini Atzeret, Simchat Torah marks the end of the annual Torah reading and the beginning of the cycle for the coming year. It is celebrated with singing, dancing and merry processions of people carrying Torahs and children waving flags.

DEC 13-20, 2017
Chanukah
In 167 BCE, the Maccabees led a band of Jews in a successful battle against the occupying Syrian-Greeks, who had desecrated the Second Temple’s eternal light. Miraculously, one day’s supply of oil lasted eight days, until more could be found. The Chanukah menorah is lit for eight nights to celebrate that miracle. Children play dreidel, and foods fried in oil are customary.

JAN 31, 2018
Tu B’Shevat
This holiday, the New Year of the Trees, marks the coming of spring. It is celebrated by having picnics, planting trees and eating fruit.

MAR 1, 2018
Purim
The Festival of Lots recalls the rescue of the Jews of Ancient Persia from annihilation at the hands of Haman, who cast lots to choose this day for his plot to kill the Jews. Queen Esther and her uncle, Mordechai, foiled his plan. On Purim, the Megillah of Esther is read, and the holiday is celebrated with festivity, costumes and noisemakers. Hamantashen are the traditional food, mishloach manot (gift packages) are exchanged and money is given to the poor.

MAR 31-APR 7, 2018
Pesach
The Exodus of the Jews from Egypt is celebrated with the eight-day festival of Passover. Ridding the home of chametz (leavened food) and eating only unleavened items commemorate the haste in which the former slaves fled Egypt, leaving them too little time for their bread dough to rise. Jews retell the story of the Exodus during their Passover Seders.

MAR 31, 2018
Rosh Hashanah
Literally meaning “Head of the Year,” Rosh Hashanah marks the beginning of the Jewish calendar, marking the end of the 10 days of repentance.

APR 12, 2018
Yom HaShoah
Also known as “Holocaust Remembrance Day,” Yom HaShoah is marked by memorials and dedications to those who perished in the Holocaust.

APR 13, 2018
Yom Hazikaron
Israel’s National Memorial Day honors veterans and fallen military personnel and victims of terror.

APR 18, 2018
Yom Ha’atzmaut
Israel Independence Day is celebrated festively by Jews around the world, commemorating the Israeli Declaration of Independence in 1948.

MAY 13, 2018
Yom Yerushalayim
Jerusalem Day commemorates the liberation of the city of Jerusalem during the 1967 Six-Day War.

MAY 20-21, 2018
Shavuot
This holiday marks the end of the Counting of the Omer. It recalls Moses’ receiving the Torah. The Megillah of Ruth is read, and all-night Torah study is customary. Dairy food, honey and floral decorations are traditional.

JUL 22, 2018
Tisha B’Av
This solemn day is a reminder of the destruction of the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem, which occurred on the same Hebrew calendar date. It is traditional to fast.
FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

The Jewish New Year actually has four beginnings. The New Year we celebrate in the fall with Rosh Hashanah recognizes the cycle of creation and civilization, but there are others recognizing the calendar year, the birthday of the trees and a celebration of kings! We do the same in the secular world, celebrating not only New Year’s Eve, but our birthdays, the school year and other anniversaries.

Jewish Federation of St. Louis’ Annual Report that you have in your hand similarly celebrates three distinct years within the life of our organization. It celebrates and recognizes our fundraising work during the 2016 calendar year. It describes the impact of the Planning & Allocations work from July 1, 2016-June 30, 2017. And it recognizes our leadership whose terms began in September of 2016 and end the “day after” our 2017 Annual Meeting when a new slate is elected. Each one of these years tells a story of our Impact in the community.

Planning & Allocations: Investments in our Community
Every year, our Planning & Allocations team works on assessing the needs of our community and allocating funds to organizations, programs and services that meet our key strategic objectives. The range of programs touches upon the most pressing needs of the Jewish people and the St. Louis community, from social services, education and community relations here in St. Louis to our partners at the Jewish Agency for Israel and the Joint Distribution Committee that ensure the needs of Jewish communities around the globe. Local unrestricted grants to our Beneficiary Agencies, including the Jewish Community Center, Jewish Family and Children’s Service, Jewish Community Relations Council, St. Louis Jewish Light, Covenant Place and Hillels at Washington University and at the University of Missouri, along with our allocations to a range of day schools, ensure that our own Jewish public sphere in St. Louis is robust. Further unrestricted allocations to our own Holocaust Museum & Learning Center and the Saul Brodsky Jewish Community Library support key educational initiatives throughout the community. Additional targeted funds from our Supporting Foundations and Donor Advised Fund services extend the Jewish Federation of St. Louis’ impact to well beyond our community’s walls.

Community Support
Jewish Federation of St. Louis is a Jewish community development organization for the St. Louis area, building, planning, investing in and making an impact on our region. We can only be successful in that work if our community invests in us. This annual Impact Report also documents the thousands upon thousands of individuals and families in the St. Louis region who have included us in their philanthropic vision. The lists you will see include the names of all people who contributed to the 2016 Annual Campaign that provides our community with the resources it needs to thrive.

2016 marked a historic milestone for the Jewish Federation of St. Louis – the first time in over 30 years that our Annual Campaign increased faster than inflation for two consecutive years. To put this in context, in 1989 we raised a little over $8 million for our Annual Campaign. Had we kept up with inflation – not beat it, but simply kept up with it – its current value would be about $20 million dollars. Growth matters, but real growth – increases that keep up with inflation – matter a lot more. That’s because they allow us to maintain core giving, supporting the institutions that create a robust St. Louis Jewish public sphere and allow us to invest strategically for impact throughout the region.

And it is not just the Annual Campaign, but our endowments, supporting organizations, advances in making our Donor Advised Fund program – our “Phil Funds” – more accessible and donor-oriented, that are making a big difference. It is also the work of our divisions like Professional Societies, and perhaps most dramatically, our Women’s Philanthropy (WP), that a renewed dynamism is spreading throughout our work. Indeed, Women’s Philanthropy had a second year of outstanding growth thanks to the volunteer leadership of Michelle Rubin, the WP Board and the Women’s Philanthropy team.

Volunteer Leadership
Finally, our Annual Report also recognizes that it is our volunteers that really make us a community development organization! It includes the people whose leadership made this possible and a list of our Officers and Directors. The Officers, Directors and Trustees invested thousands of hours to make sure our programs mattered and gave vision to our work.

At this time, we would like to thank the team of officers, Sue Schlichter, Tim Stern, David Kaslow, Mark Zorensky, Patty Croughan, Ken Kranzberg and Gerry Greiman, who all served over the past two years. Each has had a distinct role and those who are leaving these positions do so having left a legacy of hard work behind. At the same time, Brad Gross, David Kaslow and former Board Chair Sheila Greenbaum are also leaving the Board after an extended period of service. We thank all of these people for their continued support of the work we do at Federation and the contributions they have made over the years.

There are many ways to mark a year, many cycles and anniversaries. In this Report, we tell a story of the impact that our investments in the community, our programs and services, our donors, volunteers and staff have made in the last 12-18 months, depending on which year you are tracking. We hope you enjoy reading about this work and stand ready to find a meaningful way for you to deepen your own journey with our Jewish community in the upcoming year.

Harvey Wallace, Board Chair, 2015-2017
Andrew Rehfeld, President and CEO

An Additional Note from our CEO
2017 is a special year because it marks the end of Harvey Wallace’s term as Board Chair. The last two years, perhaps more than in any recent times, saw the emergence of anti-Semitism and targeting of Jewish and other communities. Harvey was outspoken in his identification of this as a real need to support our community and worked tirelessly to keep this on our agenda. His leadership drove our response to the Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery attack in February 2017, as well as the bomb threats on our communal institutions throughout his time in office. He supported the creation of a community security function at the Jewish Federation of St. Louis and will continue to motivate our thinking. Each Board Chair imprints their mark on our organization and community, and Harvey’s legacy will be felt for a long time after he steps down from office.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENTS
JEWISH FEDERATION OF ST. LOUIS

is committed to the ongoing development and enhancement of a thriving Jewish community through the support of local, national and international agencies, programs, services and innovative projects. Last year, the Jewish Federation of St. Louis’ Annual Campaign targeted giving, ongoing planned giving opportunities and Supporting Foundations strategically allocated more than $16.6 million.

The following pages will show the IMPACT of our allocations in two ways:

There are six Strategic Priorities that the Jewish Federation of St. Louis has viewed as essential to achieve our community vision:

a. Ensure the Jewish identity and engagement of future generations.

b. Create a vibrant, embracing, local Jewish community that will help retain and be attractive to young adults and families with young children.

c. Educate and advocate for a strong Israel and safe Jewish world.

d. Build a human services safety net to identify, monitor and care for the most vulnerable and isolated Jews.

e. Recruit, train and develop exceptional human resources.

f. Strengthen and optimize the community’s infrastructure (facilities, technology, data, etc.) to meet present and future realities and challenges.

Strategic Program Grants support programs and services in four main categories:

a. Building a Vibrant Jewish St. Louis
b. Enhancing St. Louis’ Attachment to Israel
c. Supporting Local Individuals in Need
d. Israel and Overseas Initiatives
Jewish Federation of St. Louis allocated $8.1 million through its community-based Planning & Allocations process for 2017-18, with funds primarily derived from the 2016 Campaign and Unrestricted Endowments.

Selected new and increased allocations included:

- $18,400 to increase scholarships at the JCC Adult Day Program
- $38,500 to Jewish Student Union that operates clubs in public high schools
- $50,000 to the Jewish Student Engagement Initiative of Hillel at Washington University
- $15,000 to Ashreinu, a St. Louis city-based community for young adults
- $77,500 to JF&CS for a case-management program for Jews with serious mental illness
- $24,000 to Chabad on Campus for its Network program to engage Jewish students at UMSL, Webster and Saint Louis University
- $7,500 for a consultant to conduct an audit of teen engagement in the Jewish community
Jewish Federation distributes a total of $16.63 million through the community-based Planning & Allocations process, Donor-Advised Philanthropic Funds, Restricted Endowments and Supporting Foundations. The Planning & Allocations process ($8.08M) is described on the following pages. The other sources of funding are:

Donor Advised Philanthropic Funds ($1.31M) enable donors to support causes they care about most and offer important tax advantages. Philanthropic Funds held by the Jewish Federation of St. Louis are distributed to organizations in St. Louis and throughout the United States that serve Jewish charitable purposes; organizations that provide programs in the areas of education, inter-group relations, culture, health and social services; and other organizations in the US that provide an identifiable benefit to the welfare of the local St. Louis community.

Restricted Endowments ($.49M) are funds of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis that provide an annual income or a tailored stream of payments to support programs, projects, agencies, organizations or initiatives of particular interest to donors. Endowments support the Annual Campaign, local congregations, Beneficiary Agencies, scholarships and assistance to designated target populations such as the elderly or low-income individuals.

There are currently four Supporting Foundations ($6.91M) of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis. A Supporting Foundation allows donors to remain involved in the process of distributing their charitable dollars with significant tax benefits. Supporting Foundations established through the Jewish Federation of St. Louis offer a vehicle for donors to create an entity that exists in perpetuity and provides an enduring legacy for the donor, his or her family and future generations.

1. The Staenberg Family Foundation’s highest funding priority is to support services, projects and programs directed toward creating a thriving Jewish community. The Foundation’s other significant areas of interest are services, projects and programs relating to arts and culture, children, education and medical research.

2. Women’s Auxiliary Foundation for Jewish Aged is focused on providing financial support for programs and organizations that ensure the dignity and honor of the Jewish elderly in the community at large.

3. The Lubin-Green Foundation provides support and grants for projects and programs within the affiliated agencies of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis, other local agencies, congregations and/or programs within the St. Louis community. Additionally, the Foundation supports international Jewish causes, particularly Partnership 2Gether, which links St. Louis and its sister region in Israel, Yokne’am-Megiddo.

4. The Kranzberg Foundation provides funds to benefit the Jewish community of St. Louis, specifically focused on the outreach to and engagement of the “Next Generation.”

B. STRATEGIC PRIORITIES

There are six strategic priorities that the Jewish Federation of St. Louis views as essential to achieve our community vision. Each of these strategic priorities is supported by defined outcomes, numerous specific strategies, tactics and best practices. Although these six priorities do not represent the totality of the Jewish Federation of St. Louis’ funding and efforts, they do define where the great majority of our time and money is focused. Here is an overview of the six strategic priorities and the strategic priorities the Jewish Federation of St. Louis provides to accomplish each goal.

We ensure the Jewish identity and engagement of future generations through diverse and sustainable programs and services.

- 150 young adults were connected to the community through a coffee meeting.
- 41 young adults participated in a leadership development opportunity.
- 113 young families were connected and referred to opportunities for engagement in Jewish communities.
- Over 500 families were in contact with the Concierge for Jewish Families with Young Children.
We create a Jewish community that will help retain and be attractive to young adults and families with young children.

Strategic Priorities

- Create a Vibrant, Embracing, Local Jewish Community
  - 3,257 children receive a PJ Library book or CD every month
  - 14 Mini-Grants helped Jewish organizations and day schools to be more inclusive
  - PJ Library created 46 engagement opportunities for families with young children
  - 85 young adults are in leadership roles, including boards and committees
  - Individuals new to St. Louis were welcomed to the community with a Chai St. Louis meeting
We educate and advocate for a strong Israel and safe Jewish world by providing and raising funds in times of need.

- $200,607 was raised through the Restoration and Security Fund
- 4,000 individuals engaged with Israel through classes, lectures, holiday celebrations and cultural experiences
- 2,500 people gathered at Chesed Shel Emeth Cemetery to volunteer and stand up to the hateful acts that desecrated our cemetery
- 89% of student visitors to HMLC increased awareness about social injustice
- 38 opportunities to experience lectures and programming about Israel
We build a human services safety net to identify, monitor and care for the most vulnerable and isolated Jews.

Strategic Priorities

BUILD A HUMAN SERVICES SAFETY NET

$2,000 given to each senior Rabbi to assist financial emergencies among their congregants

NORC

Naturally Occurring Retirement Community

Connecting Neighbors. Enriching Lives.

71% of NORC members increased their knowledge about available community resources

1,708 elderly served by NORC
We recruit, train and develop exceptional human resources so that our community has strong leaders from generation to generation.

120 people have participated in the Coaching Academy

88% of Coaching Academy participants are more likely to collaborate with another organization

20+ evaluation project consulting services

89% of staff who participated in a JProStl program identified that JPro helped them build professional relationships

435 individuals attended the 2017 JProStl Professional Recognition Luncheon, representing 32 different organizations
We create a Jewish community that will help retain and be attractive to young adults and families with young children.

Strategic Priorities

- CREATE A VIBRANT, EMBRACING, LOCAL JEWISH COMMUNITY
  - 50 organizations received emergency planning and management support
  - 50 organizations use the RAVE emergency system
